

Please note: The May meeting will take place at
Y Art Center
115 East Church Street
Frederick

May 6: Yoshi Fujii will demonstrate carving techniques. Yoshi is an accomplished ceramic artist, and holds degrees in Foreign Language, Anthropology, Sculpture, English as a Second Language, and Ceramics. He has done residencies in Taiwan and the UAE, and has won awards from the Baker Artist Foundation and the Maryland State Arts Council. His work has been published and shown in national and international exhibitions and competitions and has won several awards. He is a resident artist, instructor, and gallery manager at Baltimore Clayworks in Maryland.